Planning
Conference

By all, for all.

What is a CAP Conference?

A positive-focused, 30 minute meeting for all 8th grade students and their guardians to discuss progress toward each student's personal/social, academic, and career

Who will attend a CAP Conference?

Students will attend their CAP conference with their guardian(s) and a River Bluff school counselor.

Where will the CAP Conference be held?

All CAP Conferences will be held at River Bluff Middle School

When can I expect to have a CAP Conference?

CAP Conferences will be held between October through January, during the school day.

Why should we attend our CAP Conference?

- To learn about your student's strengths, hopes, and dreams for the future.
- To understand how to navigate the transition to high school.
- To learn about WisCareers, a web-based career planning tool.
- To understand the connection between academic development and the future.
- To address any questions you may have about your student's individual learning plan.

To begin planning for a bright future!

What are the benefits of the CAP Conference?

- Students take responsibility for their future
- Guardians feel more informed and involved
- Student apprehension about school and future goals is reduced
- Students and guardians can begin the process of planning for the future

CAP Conferencing: Support in answering the questions...

- Who am I?
- Where have I been?
- Where am I going?
- What will I need to get there?
- How can I help myself?
- Who helps me and how?
